

Oslo, 30 June 2023

Transparency Act Statement

Description of the company's organization and operating areas

EAM Solar ASA is the group's parent company. The group has two business areas with operation of solar power plants and litigation. The solar operation is in Italy and the litigation activities are spread across several jurisdictions in Europe.

Description of guidelines and routines

The solar operation is managed internally with some local sub-suppliers in Italy, and the activity is governed by several laws and regulations on operating electrical appliances within solar industry. Whereas the litigation activities includes services from external legal counsels in various countries and does not have any particular routines or guidelines.

Information on actual negative consequences and significant risk of negative consequences

No actual negative consequences or significant risk of negative consequences have been identified in neither of the business areas. Procurement and the supply chain are mainly limited to highly trained electricians or highly paid lawyers.

Information about measures that the business has implemented or plans to implement

No special measures have been implemented or is planned to be implanted for either of the business areas.

Viktor Jakobsen

Stephan L. Jervell

Gro P. Hvammen

Chairman/CEO

Board member

Board member